

Revel stands with local restaurants affected by COVID-19:
Deliver meals with us

Revel is an electric moped rideshare company. We're partnering with Washington, D.C.-based restaurants in our service area to help them transition to delivery and keep their business open. If you're a restaurant owner in need of vehicles to help meet delivery demand, we are offering our service free of charge for 4 weeks. If interested, please contact Todd McDonald, General Manager at Todd.McDonald@gorevel.com .

*Subject to change at any time as Revel continues to monitor the impact of COVID-19 on our communities. Eligibility determined by Revel in its sole discretion. Subject to Revel's user approval process, operating hours and availability at any time, and to reasonable, non-abusive use of the service.
